tried: masonic renunciations-- 2 wks ago, druidic renunciations

Mom wanting to abort-- usually manifests as depression or suicidal thoughts at time of year mom discovered was pregnant and wanted abortion- could also manifest at birthday

could manifest as auto immune disorder if not wanting to embrace life- body working against itself

Has a portion of your spirit not been able to embrace life?

Has a portion of your spirit held the offence?

Has a portion of your spirit not been able to embrace life fully?

reports still not noticed

consider mantle of invisibility (in utero tried to remain small so not aborted)

-could be that one part of your spirit has not fully embraced life

-could be that one or more part of your soul (dissociated part from trauma- "inner child" parts) has not fully embraced life

look at emotional triggers (situations, places, people, etc)

daughter went into the hospital--- with brain hemorage after child birth-- 2yrs ago (note- same time the symptoms started)

out of control feeling-- could be traumatic memory where felt completely out of control

Often adult events trigger up implicit memories from childhood events. -- follow the triggers and the pain to the lie based thinking

reports was sickly child

gaps in memory till age 11

The gaps in time could be an indicator that there is something walled off that may have been too much for you when you were a child.

Consider spirit led healing for parts of the soul which may still be carrying pain-- as symptoms could be the soul crying out for relief

The gaps in time could be an indicator that there is something walled off that may have been too much for you when you were a child.

It takes a lot of energy in the soul to keep years of memory walled off

When there is walled off trauma, we can experience un-explained body aches and pains.

Consider spirit led healing for parts of the soul which may still be carrying pain-- as symptoms could be the soul crying out for relief - can even have womb memory/healing

- Theophostic ministry

  - helpful to have someone facilitating to help get one past natural defenses

- direct ministry to the soul by God thru soaking in the spirit

- thru dreams

Blessing each part of your spirit to receive life!-- you can do this for yourself

- the spirit can help facilitate faster healing of the soul and body

soul and body can be out of alignment with the spirit- not able to appropriate all of the healing/ ministry available to you from God

So can say a renouncement, or get ministry, but not all of the soul got it or a portion of the spirit is not developed enough to receive it all

Maggie on parts carrying trauma: When your mind walls off stuff, it means that your mind is working perfectly the way God designed your brain to work.

It helps one to survive and cope and go on with life.

However, later the very coping skills interfere with solving life's problems.

So... An approach is to find a good Theophostic minister to help you work past the natural defenses.

The relief and healing comes with uncovering the walled off traumatic memories, and letting Jesus come into those places

Jesus heals the memories beautifully, and the memory itself becomes a bonus.

He truly does set the captives free and bind up the broken-hearted.

If carrying burden for Exhorter land-- can manifest itself as thyroid problems

If carrying a burden for Teacher land-- can manifest itself as auto- immune disorders

If think this could be an issue---

- ask God to take any inappropriate burden

- pray and bless the land and release it to God

- renounce any way in which taking legitimacy from intercession or redeeming the land

- ask God to seal things until the proper time (if taking on burdens too early- out of God's timing"

- Seek wisdom as to whether the burden is an assignment from Him.

  - Seek wisdom as to whether the burden is an assignment from Him.

  - Repent if appropriate

Consider - generational data transfer-- thru the eye gate when breast feeding or bottle feeding

get "download" of trauma that does not belong to you- fears etc

To address this, ask God to separate what is yours and what belongs to other generations and release it to him

Continue masonic renunciations every 3 months--- so different parts that are forward can also

(Sinning against time-- wishing we were in past or the future or when we refuse the pain of the day/ moment, opens us up to legal ground that we are before renunciations)

Choosing to live in the present moment, regardless of how much it hurts, truly unlocks things.

Mantle of Invisibility

(notes from Arthur Burk's teachings www.plumblineministries.com)

Commanding presence of those walking into room—can project your spirit in a commanding way (fighter pilots)

Opposite of that is mantle of invisibility—embraced voluntarily (usually as a child)
Unsafe for child to be visible

- Unwanted pregnancy (mother trying to hide pregnancy)
- Homes with parental anger (less apt to get attacked)
- Molestation- child will wish didn't exist
- Dysfunctional marriage- “if only I hadn't been born”
- Anything where you wish you weren't seen

Beliefs, proclamations, thoughts, vows can produce this mantle of invisibility

Markers of mantle of invisibility

- In ministry lines- skipped right over by those ministering
- People look right through you as if you didn't exist
- Not noticed for what doing
- In conversation, not acknowledged when contribute something worthwhile
- Not chosen to participate in something when you are the obvious choice

Break vows, proclaim that it is alright to have an identity, a destiny and to be seen by men/by men of God, by spiritual giants.

As this mantle dissolved—you will be included in new ways—celebrate this as it happens
Practice opening spirit up to others,-- extend blessings with your spirit to those standing ahead of you

Normative to have a spirit that reaches out

Practicing the presence of the Father—being in His presence and extending your spirit to His.
