1st Question- When did it begin?

Discern the Etiology:

Trauma

Deception

Covenants and Curses

Gift

Sin against Time

Non human components- synthetics

Community Ties

Loss of Essence

Nature

Demonic Data Transfer

Spiritual Labels

Mantle of Invisibility

Mesmerizing Spirit

Spirit of Jealousy

Victim Spirit

Inner Vows — may not have been intentional

Identified ongoing issues:

- Inability to feel love from father and others
- Difficulty feeling trust
- Difficulty connecting and socializing freely
- Difficulty making female friends (as teenager most friends were male- direct in their communications)
- Difficulty sustaining initial contacts/friendships

History:

Age 13-16 argument with parents- about issue where truth was told, but mom didn't believe her and said she lied.

Physical altercation (slapped each other)

Father asked what going on (usually not involved)

Mom didn't explain the whole thing to him, just mentioned the lie and the slap

Father punished her.

Made up later- but no "I'm sorry's"- pushed under the rug never really vindicated

Upset that own parents didn't trust her

Since then issues with trust- difficulty trusting others

Background: parents living, Christians, live close

In general, all problems resolved, but not this one in general, this type of issue with a teen doesn't cause these type of issues. the fact that these trust issues lead back to this incident reveals there is something more going on. in other words, the consequences outweigh the level of the incident.

to try to deal with the issue so far, has prayed, has forgiven them.

revealed: issues between father and his mother with lack of love (unloved label)

inner vow: if they don't trust me, why should I tell the truth? even though I did tell the truth to deal with inner vows: repent (ask forgiveness and desire to change) and renounce (separate completely of any connection with that statement), ask Jesus to cleanse, show the truth and then claim that truth. ask God's presence to come, fill that place and for blood of Jesus to clean family line and fill place of hurt that caused me to hold onto that defense/cling to the lie, then ask for justice for any way in which enemy robbed me through that vow. and is there anything God wants to say to be after? He comes with refreshment.

re: labels: ask Him to remove any label associated with the vow and ask Him to replace with anything He'd like to put on me - the TRUTH!! any banners He wants to place over you.

trust issue with grandma on father's side. dad was younger twin, not treated well by mom. grandma lost another baby and drank a lot. his father never stood up for him, in fact caused him to leave home early. when deal with generational issues first, those frailties are outta the way. so repentance for it - ask God at what point in fam line alcoholism came in and specifically repent on behalf of parents not acting trustworthy (grandma and father) ask God to break off family line and proclaim that parents should trust and protect their children. along with identificational repentance, making positive pronouncement brings things back into alignment - replaces lie with truth. breaks off future generations and applying Jesus blood to family line changes things so each person is only dealing with their own sin, not the iniquity of past generations. also, can bless their spirits - the power of the blessing is amazing and brings the opposite spirit so you can move in the positive where the negative has been.

dealing with trauma portion: spirit took offense. clean up external part first - ask God to deal with any wrong responses and repent for whatever He reveals (ie: withdrawing, judging, etc.) dealing with actual trauma, get into God's presence and let Him minister to your spirit and soul. sometimes, helps to have external help like sozo, theophostic, blessing/healing prayers. can do this on own sometimes, as well - asking God to shed light on place, ask Him to reveal any lies and replace lies with truth, restore, wash residue off. wound still needs to be addressed - ask God to reparent, Father you - and heal those places. intentional work on spiritual sonship (coming in opposite spirit). check arthur burk's site for blessings. you can also bless your own spirit to receive his favor, trust and love. to position itself esp at night when sleep, to receive, ask for dreams, bless spirit to rule over soul and come into alignment with Holy Spirit.

wounds to the spirit cannot be healed through the soul. ie: if you are rejected, it lands in the soul, but betrayal lands in the spirit. the only way to be healed in the spirit is through the Holy Spirit.
