

Dream Text: protection, holy spirit, church, spiritual group, organization, mentor, literal (mom) life situation, family; cell group

My mom and I were in a new house that we had bought. It was closer to the city as we live in the suburbs. We moved to a nicer more upscale town when I noticed my mom and I were sitting on a couch in the living room. I looked to the left where the dining room and kitchen were and I said the house looks like my boyfriends parents house. The feeling was like we were more financially set as the parents live in an upscale town. Somehow I was in another room upstairs perhaps a bedroom when I looked outside the window I saw a Black/Midnight blue night sky with alot of stars more than I have ever seen naturally in my life. It seemed at first it was 3/4 dark and 1/4 bright red orange then with in a moment it was 100% black/midnight blue. Within the stars, all of a sudden I saw a paragraph written to me. I could not believe this was happening. It was like a fairytale. I noticed among the words, 20% of the letters were backwards, 20% were foreign or strang letters and the rest were regular english letters. I was trying to read the paragraph but was slow because I was trying to figure it out. I got out of it something about a city and a king it seemed to fade because it was the length of time. suddenly, I noticed I was somehow downstairs back in the living room when I asked my mom to come see this paragraph. She only saw some of it because my mom turned on a light for the outside of the window but the light seemed to disturb what was going on there. It seemed we had comfortable amenities such as the light switch. I noticed we were on the couch again where there were many people gathering in the living/dining area where my mom was hosting a party. I thought they were family when I asked her if they were she said no they are friends from church (her friends). One lady came to her and said you must pay $7,000 in taxes because of the area but my mom said no I pay $3,000. Then there were two long tables one in front of us where we sat in the living room and next to us in the dining room. The people sat perfectly at the tables about to eat when a man stood up and gave a speech or statement and said "A young lady dressed in black had a destiny 34 years ago." I knew this man was talking about me because that is what I wear. I was surprised and as I was still sitting on the couch I thought to myself I am only 33 years of age. When I woke up I was beside my self as I realized I am 33 and will be 34 in the next 8 weeks.

What would you title this dream?
(helps to unlock the meaning of the dream)

message written in the sky; moving forward; messages of revelation and destiny; stary-eyed surprise;

Who or what is the dream for?
(For the dreamer? For intercession? Prophetic message for a group? Etc.)

dreamer
NOTE TO INTERPRETERS: stick with the title: shoot for the stars... the key to interpreting this dream is not to let the details suck the mystery out of the dream - similar to not allowing yourself to be overwhelmed by the details within a disturbing dream.

Compelling dream elements: follow the revelation!
(what stands out in the dream?)

HOUSE: spiritual life situation of dreamer and possibly mom; was a price to pay to get there; potential on-going costs - step in more secure, more upscale direction

TAXES: others think the upgrade is more taxing (spiritually) for (mom) than the mom thinks. 7 - completion perfection, fullness 3 - God others think that this is draining, striving was required (religious heaviness ie something good put under religious rules) - mom has good perspective - GOD IS TAKING CARE OF IT.

PARAGRAPH: puzzle for the dreamer to understand/figure out re: the plans god has to prosper her beyond comprehension. 1 cor 2:9 "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." like the message in the stars is her learnign about her destiny through her dream life...mentor trying to help understand, but the artificial light obscures the message and diminishes the revelation. midnight (mid-night) blue - night revelation possibly revelation received when awake - night vision (in context to her hopes and dreams) - struggling to decipher (interesting characte turned around - not in the order she is expecting. might seem "backwards" not her customary manner of thinking.

DECLARATION: spiritual proclamation; heavenly revelation; holy (pure); number is very specific - points to a specific individual (grabs your attention) - reminder of destiny, perhaps time to reevaluate/think about her life direction. encourage her to keep moving forward. may be a little slow to discern her destiny - may be trying to figure it out instead receive it. night sky changes - season is ending, shifting to a time of deeper revelation
