Dream Text: freedom; praise and worship - expressing love to God

I dreamed I was in my car. I was singing. I knew that at previous times when I had done so with a CD to God that my voice had become somehow amplified – greater than my voice could be in the natural and with such a beautiful tone. But this time it happened just with me singing (no background music). I was excited and filled with joy. I started to go out in the Spirit, but remembered I was driving and thought that might not be safe, so I sat back up and kept singing. The experience was exhilarating!
