

Dream Text:

I am in a big car, convertible, almost the size of a tank. There is no breeze, but the car is going 80 mph. I am facing forward, and there is a friend facing me, and we are at a small table in the car, playing cards. I knew she was beating me in this friendly card game, and I was sipping on a half glass of white wine. I started to ask her if she was drinking too and realized we were going 80 (because somehow she was driving even though not facing the front of the car or had a steering wheel) but then knew she wasn't drinking, and told her my thoughts. At once, I realized I had one card in my hand, and that I could go out. It was the 5 of spades. I had a red three of something (the only color in the dream), and put that down so I could win with the spade. She asked me if I had the 2nd 5 of spades; when I looked, sure enough, I had both. Then I woke up.
