

Dream Text: arena-- parking lot-- place of rest or waiting-- dreamer ready to roll

Dream: I was in a huge parking lot in my blue Toyota Highlander, another SUV yellow in color was there. I did not like this person because of his attitude. He rolled up and wanted to race.. In my mind I was thinking, this guy could probably beat me. I decided to go ahead anyway. When we took off our front wheels were spinning in place. I backed off the gas and my wheels caught, but he was still spinning his wheels. I took off and was in front of him. I could see him in my side mirror still spinning his wheels. I was a little surprised...

What would you title the dream?
(helps to unlock the essence of the dream)

being all revved up for something-- but only spinning his wheels- need to "back off" and get spiritually grounded to move forward

"Testosterone" "Racing marathon" Stronger than you think!" Breaking out of the Spin"
"Just back off" "Breakaway!" "Get out of the parking lot!"

Who or what is the dream for?
(For the dreamer? For Intercession? Prophetic message for a group? Etc.)

the dream is for and about the dreamer

Compelling Dream Elements: (follow the revelation!)

Blue Highlander-- revelatory and higher perspective- proverbial high road- higher ground (integrity) 4WD-- can traverse rugged terrain-- off the beaten path-- trailblazing

Yellow SUV--- Person moving in fear-- (not renewed mind-- doesn't feel positive) game playing almost like playing "chicken" could also be reference for dreamer to take caution

the guy in yellow keeps trying the same thing expecting different results

blue /yellow-- revelation verses the mind/intelligence Backs off--- able to move forward-- uses his mind/thinks seems to be an intellectual struggle to overcome at first

Turning point/conflict in the dream?

backing off

Why was the dreamer given the dream?

for encouragement and a little direction- to encourage the dreamer to "back off" and stay grounded so that he can move forward

Class Interpretations:

(What would you say to the dreamer?)

Dreamer, this dream makes reference to the race laid out before you. There may be people in your life who are competitive with you in your race, but lack the groundedness you have. This dream reveals to you that there is a revelatory gift in you, and that if you will stay grounded in the Lord, you will be victorious.

feedback-- gives the higher level interpretation-- not so much how playing out in natural.-- skewed a little positive-- dreamer doesn't get it at first- this is showing him the process-- addendum: There may be times when wisdom would dictate there will be times to back off the gas in order to move forward.

This dream shows that while you are moving in an area of spiritual revelation, you're being challenged by an intellectual (not spiritual) mindset. This could be either an internal conflict, or a disagreement with another person(s). You're being shown that the key to getting ahead in this conflict is to back off a little, to avoid "spinning your wheels."

I really commend you on this one-- have discerned a deep kernel of truth here. I bet that this is playing out in the natural with a specific person Dreamer this dream is showing you have the ability to back off and get a higher perspective regarding the race set before you.

Right to the point!

This dream reveals you are a person that can move in rough terrain and have been seasoned with revelation, but in a placed resting and waiting. The dream shows a challenge with an attitude that leaves you a little apprehensive, but you embrace the challenge and are surprised at the result. Looking back you see someone or thing that need some grounding to run the race as you do.

like the flavor of this-- showing him the process and the place where he's coming from Dreamer - This dream is about moving forward in your revelatory gift. You're in a hurry to move forward, but are not getting results. A "pedal to the metal" approach hasn't yielded results. It's when you slow down a little you're able to get the traction you need pull ahead - while those who seem better outfitted intellectually to speed ahead are accomplishing little for all their efforts. The message of this dream seems to be "it's not power, but groundedness that moves you forward."

reveals the essence of the dream explaining the interp thru the car metaphors

Your dream shows that there is an intellectual challenge you will face while you are in a season of waiting that might seem like it could overtake you, but the dream reveals that when you "back off" a little to gather your thoughts and give yourself an opportunity to get grounded, you will find the necessary traction to take off. The dream also gives an encouragement that your choice to properly utilize the higher perspective and revelation with which you have been provided will prevent you from getting stuck spinning your wheels unnecessarily.

very good-- including everything-- also using the car metaphors

Good news dreamer, you're on high ground and you have much to offer us. If you're in a slippery situation, you know how to get out and when to back off. Others use just their revelation, but you use your wisdom with the revelation you've been given and this empowers you to go forward.

nice dream interp blend-- exhortation!

Additional Comments for the dreamer on another level-- this dream is a metaphor for "running the race" biblically-- patient endurance on behalf of the saints the dream shows the need for some spiritual "grounding " to get traction- or its just a lot of air- its not what's under the hood here, its whats under the helmet!

"maybe it's the church, and 3/4 are there for the music, and the rest for the wedding!" lol

Dream Text:

I dreamed I was present at a venue, where two events were to be hosted on adjacent stages simultaneously. The venue looked like an outdoor football stadium with bleachers. My vantage point was from the bleachers, high up in the stands, and I was moving downward from the Beatles side over to the wedding side. The different sides of the stands were comprised of people you would expect at a Beatles concert vs. a wedding ceremony. 3/4 of the seating was allotted to the Beatles fans, and the rest was for the wedding. The stands were already filling up, and I was wondering how I would find a good seat. There was a distinct line between the two seating sections, but no true barrier to keep either event from interfering with the other from the stands or the stages.

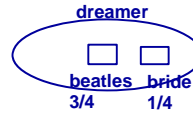

As I was moving toward the wedding section in the stands, I was looking for two couples who were going to be at the wedding. They were our friends the Fitzgeralds and Fishers. Strangely, the two couples are completely unrelated in real life. I never did actually find either couple in the dream.

There were two odd warm up bands who performed one after the other on a platform up close to the seating on the Beatles. The warm up acts were chick bands - rock bands. The weird part was, all the "chicks" were no spring chicks at all. Each band member was a middle aged woman, past her prime, and these women were not very good. They were even a little "pitchy".

The old rocker chicks were not recognizable or famous; weird... church organizations, voices (old style) warming people up "Cuz I believe in yesterday!" I woke up before the wedding ceremony or the Beatles concert started. I still had not found a seat, but I had made it over to the wedding side of the stands. While I was dreaming, I think I knew who was to be married, but when I woke up I could no longer remember.

lots of people- stages in center facing the people evangelists- fishers of men

sons of thunder prophecy about beatles <http://www.hispraise.com/MorningStar/sonsof.htm>

word play- trying to sell or "pitch" something- no longer current or fresh "setting the stage for the new old" church organizations, voices (old style) warming people up "Cuz I believe in yesterday!"

2 stages-- "staged"

lots of 2's, 2 stages, 2 acts ,back to back- insufferable "can I get a witness??"

What would you title the dream?

(helps to unlock the essence of the dream)

"He Loves You Ya Ya Ya!" "Past your prime baby" "Pitchin Rock" "Both sides Now"

"Two different sides" "Yesterday" "The son versus the sun"

Who or what is the dream for?

(For the dreamer? For Intercession? Prophetic message for a group? Etc.)

notice neither things on the stage have "arrived" and dreamer hasn't found her place yet this dream is for and about the dreamer --- but has strong feel for a larger application

Compelling Dream Elements: (follow the revelation!)

Venue--the world/the church-- interesting-- we are in the mercy season now-- erasing the line between the secular and the sacred could be a new metaphor for the fields

Beatles---- soul realm-- new sound, charismatic-- exhorters shifted the culture -- revolution, changed the way we thought-- they set the stage for change

Old rocker chicks--- Old wine, last generation things of the past the warm up band is supposed to prime up the crowd for what's coming next---but just like the old wineskin church, these bands are having the opposite effect.

Beatles---- on one level represent icons-- change revolution--- but to new generation, they represent "yesterday" when we hear the beatles it takes us back to yesterday's glory--- idolizing the past they are idols--- "way to go church-- again you are 50 years behind"

Right now-- dreamer's choices are -- "Yesterday" or "FOTB"

Dreamer looking for --- sonship and evangelists--- those who can do the work of God

In the end-- its all a show-- the arena what the church has to show for itself--- out of sync and out of step

"and you have to buy tickets" lol has some self insight and some intercession-- primarily revelatory

Turning point/ conflict in the dream?

Why was the dreamer given the dream?

to reveal to dreamer why having difficulty finding her place in church arena- why feeling unsatisfied this dream is likely a confirmation of things the dreamer has been sensing but could not give language to

Class Interpretations:

(What would you say to the dreamer?)

Dreamer, this dream is shedding some light on the condition of the church, and His plans to erase the line between the secular and the sacred. The dream reveals that you are looking for your place in the church but have not yet found it. You are looking for the revelation of the Sons of God and the manifestation of evangelism in the church. The dream also reveals that the old guard in the church (who clings to yesterday's glory is trying to pitch a methodology that is dated and therefore no longer relevant to today. This dream is not only about yourself, but the church at large. The tension you feel between the already, but not yet is an invitation to

BRAVO!!

Dreamer -This dream is about the church at large and your trying to find your place in it. The stage is set for some great things, but what you're witnessing isn't. Most of the church seems to be hyping an older, idolized model that's outdated, and kind of an earsore. Juxtaposed to that is a smaller portion of the body who are there to intercede (there is only a fine line separating the 2) and you're moving towards that, looking for the manifestation of the sons of god, for the evangelists, but haven't found them yet. This leaves you still searching -
