

backdrop- jungle at night--- "its a jungle out there" chaotic dangerous environment- not civilized---night = cloaked by darkness

tall= influential, grey hair= maturity/wisdom flat top--- military history French- exhorter nation gave us the statue of liberty-- affirming our values passion, good food! known for good wines, sophistication, fashion

Dream Text: Sr American leadership at least, if not himself

I saw the president (Obama) talking with a group of men. He was giving assurances of protection for a man who in the dream was French. I was uncertain what this man was. He was tall with gray hair cut in a short flat top. He wore glasses and looked middle aged. He didn't look like a politician but more like a professor or archeologist or explorer. reminds one of indiana jones! looking for the truth, reliable

Next scene is in a jungle and this group of men, (minus Obama), were escorting the man to a military camp. It was an American camp. He was left there alone.

word play-- camps in sides/groups who hold an opinion-

The next scene is this man being chased by what looked like military Special Forces. Faces were all blacked out and they were wearing camouflage. They were shooting at him but the assault was way over the top. There were so many men coming against this one man who was alone. He tried to fire a gun back at them and was gunned down in a hail of bullets. hale/hail coming down from above black out-- perhaps reference to press black out-- identities hidden character assassination- so over the top, finishes this off-- didn't even have a fighting chance-- totally annihilated ideals. Full force all out targeted, but very secretive/sneaky

The next scene was an American field general looking down on the body of this man and he looked confused. He was asking other officers who he was as he turned him over with his foot.

No one seemed to know. Then a messenger came up with a video for the general. He and his staff watched the video. It was Obama telling them that they are to protect the man who was now dead, and that he, Obama, had given his assurances that we would do so. As he was talking, the lens of my eye pulled closer into the image on the TV screen and I saw a cold look in his eye and a hint of evil smirk on his face. It was as though he had known that this order would be received too late. I then woke up.

if look closely, evil intent is evident-- those who are discerning will see general population-- out in the field-- General-- the population in a democracy is to lead the country

The man was dropped of at night and his killing happened at night too.

What would you title the dream?

(helps to unlock the essence of the dream)

eye is a window to the soul-(cold and calculating at the least!)

Math 6:22, 23 The eye is the lamp of the body. If then your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is diseased, then your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is that darkness

"Special Forces" "Empty promises" "NObama: Too Little Too Late" "Assurance Too Late" "Deception in the jungle" "Protection Deception"

New Title- " NObama: America wards off the Evil Eye"

Who or what is the dream for?

(For the dreamer? For Intercession? Prophetic message for a group? Etc.)

Extrinsic dream-- the dreamer is not the focus! Dream is for the dreamer to pray

Compelling Dream Elements: (follow the revelation!)

President Obama-- Authority, himself, our country, The President's foreign policy/agenda

French man-- representing affirmation of freedom, ideals (see what France represents--) on other level could represent a French territory or even Foreign policy

Escorted to "american camp" american ideology-- had a deal, thought he would be protected. Its a set up

Technically the general is in charge and is responsible--- even though was deceived, General has some culpability--this would be a matter for identificational repentance and intercession its a video because he's "playing everyone"

what he is putting forward- what he wants to be seen-- shown as deceptive propoganda

Turning point/ conflict in the dream?

No real turning point-- for the dreamer, may be when saw that this was his plan all along-- intentional

Why was the dreamer given the dream?

To Pray and warn!-- To pray for the US, our ideals, and the lifting of the Mesmerizing spirit-- to pray against the evil agenda

Class Interpretations:

(What would you say to the dreamer?)

This dream helps you to know how to pray for our country. What is unfolding is that freedoms that have been respected are under secret attack . While leaders are saying one thing about protecting this ideal, it is evident on close examination that this is not really intended. The American general public are confused by the loss. Dream comes for you to pray that God would shine his light on the situation and truth would be revealed.

Nicely handled-- especially giving room for Obama to be literal and metaphoric for the leadership of

This dream reveals some of the secret things happening in our country. It shows that American leadership at a senior level is deceiving the general population, by promising one thing but doing another in secret. One possible application is that the ideals of freedom and liberty that the administration has sworn to protect will actually come under fire and be destroyed, all while the president continues to say he will protect this. This leaves the population confused, but not guiltless. God has shown you this to ask you to pray and intercede for this situation, that His light would shine on the Truth long enough for the American people to see what is really going on.

Excellent!

Dreamer, This dream is a call to pray for the state of affairs in the country and world. Not all is as it appears and the truth has been camouflaged from the general population. Pray that God will shed His light to open eyes to the deception that is gunning down our freedoms.

Short and concise-- unlocks the essence of the dream! Like the language you used from the dream.

You have been given a glimpse into what is playing out in the world's foreign policies. Things are not what they appear to be and the general population is confused at what is really happening. There are plans in the work to deceive the general public into thinking one thing but in reality something else is going down. God has given you this dream to intercede that the true agenda would come into light so that others will be able to see the truth of what is really going on.

Like how you handled the French as foreign policy!

Well Dreamer, this is a good dream, it's an intercession. It shows that our senior leadership needs prayer, since the dream shows that they're playing both sides, while the general population is confused by these actions. Ideals need to be fought for, so fight in intercession!

Well said-- nice exhortation and that personal flair!

Dreamer: Current US administration is playing the general public. Upon closer inspection, it's apparent that their intent is to take out the ideals of freedom while placing the responsibility for it on the heads of the general public. Pray! - That God would shed light on the situation and that the public would get the message in time.

Nice how you brought it all together in plain english!

Additional Comments or revelation for the dreamer:

It seems that the "Mesmerizing Spirit" is at work here- prayer: that God would shine his light and hold it there long enough that the general population would see what God sees.
