(it looked like a spade) Then we searched the house for it. I wasn't sure that they believed that there was a vampire there. I found it lying down on a couch in the attic. The vampire saw me coming and got up. At first he had more power than me and I couldn't move, then I started saying the Lord's Prayer and then it didn't have as much power and I was wrestling with it and it got knocked down the stairs. ## Cryogenics

I was naked in the tub (empty or with little water in it) and was following instructions to put myself into cryogenics. The last part of the procedure was to cut my head off.

Then I was in the tub again and in my right hand I had the spray nozzle (like whipped cream) and was attempting to cryogenic myself again. This time my brother was sitting next to me. He asked me what I was doing. I told him that I was having difficulty doing the cryogenics (the warmth of the water and my body heat made it not take.) When it came to the part where I had to cut my head off I didn't want to and wasn't sure how I had done it before and survived. I was confused and hesitant.

Dream Text:

I had a dream, and in it, me and a ton of the people I knew were playing manhunt. Except, we had guns and were literally hunting each other. I didn't know who was on my team, or if there were even teams. And whenever I saw someone, without knowing who it was or why, I'd shoot. I was scared, but for some reason, thought it was a game. And for some reason, I would see one of my friends, and know they were on my side. And I kept finding money...

At first, it was all just mayhem, just everyone fighting in the dark in my town. But then I didn't have a gun, and I was running from a girl in my youth group... And she had me cornered against this hill that seemed to climb straight up. But it still had trees and grass on it. I knew I couldn't climb it, but I did anyways. So I got to the top. I think there was more, but I can't remember.
